

Stacy Ache

Stacy Ache graduated from Texas State University with a Bachelor of Science in Dance Education. While at Texas State she was a Texas State Strutter Head Captain and performed in over seven countries around the world. She was the Director and founder of the Klein Collins High School Tiger Belles. Stacy received her Masters of Educational Leadership and currently she an administrator in Cy Fair ISD, teaches leadership dance camps and adjudicates dance competitions.